KERENSKY AND KORNILOFF UNITE TO SAVE RUSSIA IN WAR

U. S. TO GIVE FITTING HONOR TO DEAD QUEEN

Army, Navy and National Guard in Majestic Funeral Procession; Full Regiment of Infantry to Be in Line; Body in State Today at Kawaiahao Church, Viewed by Public

Queen Liliuokalani's body is lying in state at Kawaiahao church today, viewed by silent hundreds. The body of the dead queen lies in the midst of indescribable beauty and picturesqueness. The public will be allowed access to the church until 10 tonight.

IMPRESSIVE military honors from the army, navy and national guard will be accorded the late Queen Liliuokalani, arrangements having been made for a representation from each of these in the funeral procession next Sunday.

In addition to the part which the army will have with its funeral escort in the procession a salute of 21 guns fired by a battery of the 1st Field Artillery in the capitol grounds has been ordered by Brig. Gen. John P. Wissner.

In the funeral procession representing the army of the United States will be the full regiment of the 2nd Infantry from Fort Shafter; a full squadron of the 4th Cavalry from Schofield Barracks and a battalion of the 1st Field Artillery from Schofield. This will make up a funeral brigade.

Navy to Be Represented.

Capt. George R. Clark is making arrangements at Pearl Harbor to have the navy represented with a reputation from the naval station.

Four companies of the national guard now encamped at Kawaiahao will form a provisional battalion as a guard of honor to the late queen's remains. These companies will be chosen, one from each island of the group.

As the funeral procession begins its way from the former palace of the dead queen the field artillery battery stationed in the grounds will take up the regulation salute of 21 guns. At intervals of one minute each the salute will be fired.

Col. Earl C. Carnahan, commanding the 25th Infantry at Schofield Barracks, has been designated in command of the funeral escort detailed for the occasion by the army.

Schools to Pay Tribute

Formal tribute to Hawaii's dead queen will be made by students of the public and private schools on Friday, a half holiday having been set for this day among the schools of the territory.

Five hundred school children composed of the eighth grades of all the city schools and the senior classes of McKinley high school and the territorial normal school will march in a procession on Friday afternoon. Announcement to this effect was made today by L. G. Blackman, acting superintendent of public instruction.

Procession at Thomas Square

The procession will form at Thomas Square, leaving promptly at 1 o'clock, and passing up King street to Kawaiahao to present floral tribute to the dead. A floral offering will be laid by the bier by each of the classes. In the procession will also march the principals of the various schools and the teachers of the separate grades. It will disband at Central Grammar school.

Friday morning is to be given over to any private schools of the city to pay respect to the memory of Queen Liliuokalani. Formal request for a part in the funeral ceremonies was made today by Mr. Blackman to Maj. F. J. Green, who wirelessly at once to Governor Pinkham arranging the half holiday.

Ceremony at Queen's Bier

Indescribably beautiful and impressive was the ceremony of the kahili bearers around the queen's bier this morning from 8 o'clock to 10, when the Daughters of Hawaiian Warriors, with Mrs. Walter Macfarlane as captain, had the watch. On either side of the bier stood five members of the society, all clad in black holokus, with the short cape of yellow, red and black worn by the warriors, over their shoulders, and yellow feather leis, one or two of which showed the red of high warriors, around their heads.

Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, as captain, wore a long black cloak that draped her stately figure from head to foot and over the top of this cloak she wore the short yellow and red cape of the Warriors. She held no kahili, but stood immovable for the two hours of the watch.

The other ladies of this watch, which will be on duty again before the week is over, are: Mrs. Lele Duvauchelle, Mrs. Junius Kane, Mrs. D. H. Lewis, Mrs. Annie S. Reist, Mrs. Mary Ann Nakai, Mrs. R. Panee, Mrs. A. Woolsey, Mrs. K. Bishaw and Mrs. J. K. Kamanouli.

Chant Is Impressive

The solemn and impressive chanting for this watch was led by Mrs. John P. Padakem.

ROYAL KAHILIS WAVE OVER HAWAII'S QUEEN

Above is the interior of Kawaiahao church, photographed this morning with the bier of Queen Liliuokalani in the center of the main auditorium. All around her are the tall kahilis, the plumes of royalty, now waved by silent mourners, hour after hour. Other kahilis stand in stately array. The bier of the queen is just under the broad white arrow pointing downward, in the center of the picture. Below is the crepe-draped front of the church, with Hawaiian national guardsmen keeping their formal vigil.—Photos by Star-Bulletin staff photographer.

ANOTHER CHINESE REVOLT; THREE GARRISONS START UPRISING IN MANCHURIA

(Special Cable to Nippon Jiji)

TOKIO, Japan, Nov. 13.—The Chinese garrisons of the three provinces in Manchuria are now in open revolt against the Peking government. The reports of disorders among the mutinied troops are being received from many points in northern China.

According to the latest Peking despatches Gen. Tuan Chi-jui, the premier, who was largely responsible for China's declaration of war against Germany, is fast losing his influence among the Chinese generals. It is observed here that there is a strong possibility of Tuan's resignation in the near future.

CHINA DENIES JAPAN HAS SPECIAL RIGHTS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 13.—Formal protest against the recently announced agreement between the United States and Japan, completed during the visit in Washington of Viscount Ishii, was yesterday presented to the department of state by the Chinese ambassador. The protest is practically identical in terms with the one which it is reported was presented to Japan.

The chief point of objection which China raises to the agreement is the recognition of Japan having special rights in China. The claim of China is that there should be no special rights in China admitted and that such admissions are dangerous to the national integrity and subversive to the interests of the country.

The other provisions of the agreement contain little that is found objectionable.

"Save Public Lands," Urges Faxon Bishop

"If Present Procedure Continues, Only Matter of Years Until We'll Have No More Public Lands, and Territory Will Lose Revenue"; Put Control in Proper Hands; Adjustment of Question Will Be Sad News to Politicians

POINTS ON LANDS MADE BY E. F. BISHOP

Sugar interests of Hawaii not opposed to homesteading.

Sugar interests are opposed to "wild and dangerous system" now operative.

Where, but in Hawaii, is it seriously proposed to open for homesteading at low figures land of already high developed market value?

Homesteader now more of land speculator than farmer.

Experience of past shows folly of willy-nilly opening of lands.

What is left of lands should be conserved for public good.

Laws should be modified to put lands under control which may use discretion as to opening.

Declaring in favor of suitable control of public lands by territorial officials to end the present "wild and dangerous system," E. Faxon Bishop, in the following letter to the Star-Bulletin today, speaks vigorously against a land policy which will dissipate the territory's present much-needed revenues.

His statement, of special interest because of the changes in the land laws discussed by members of the visiting congressional party, is as follows:

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

The president of the United States having appointed Thursday, the twenty-ninth day of this month of November as a day of national thanksgiving and prayer, I recommend that the people of this territory join in the observance of that day in a profoundly sincere manner.

The greatest gift of the people of Hawaii has not been the extraordinary financial prosperity of the year or their wonderful liberality in Red Cross work and the financial support of the national government, but that the conviction is gradually permeating the body politic that true manhood and true womanhood are the foundations on which human society in this territory rests and that wealth or the pride of wealth cannot buy the virtues that go to make up a nation.

We cannot forecast the future with a world so frightfully involved, but we can thank Almighty God that we have in Hawaii such numbers of all nationalities eager to sacrifice, that the nation may live true to the principles on which it is founded.

Let us with deep appreciation thank the National Guard of Hawaii, that they of all voluntary organizations in the Union led in time and relative numbers and urge their desire for service may be granted.

Pray not only for the spirit but the strong arm of righteousness.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the Territory of Hawaii to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol in Honolulu, A. D. 1917.

(Seal)

LUCIUS E. PINKHAM,
Governor of Hawaii.

By the Governor.
(Signed)
Curtis P. Lauka, Secretary of Hawaii.

BOLSHEVIKIS IN FINISH BATTLE CLAIM VICTORY

Kerensky Regains Measure of Power and Petrograd is the Scene of Desperate Fighting; Finnish Papers Say Maximalist-Bolshevik Faction Defeated

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Wireless.)
LONDON, Eng., Nov. 13.—Wireless messages received here late today say that the Bolshevik leaders claim to have completely defeated Kerensky and General Korniloff.

(While this claim of the Bolsheviks is in effect disposed of by the advices from other sources showing the Kerensky party is winning back power, it settles the point previously known as to what role Korniloff, deposed recently as commander of the Russian armies, is now playing. Korniloff now appears as a supporter of Kerensky, with whom he has joined military forces to avert the imminent Russian separate peace which the Bolshevik-Maximalist clan advocates.)

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Nov. 13.—News from Russia today indicates that Premier A. F. Kerensky is winning back his power, and that the factions opposing him are on the verge of entire defeat.

A Stockholm despatch today says that Kerensky's troops, after two days of fighting in Petrograd, now control part of the capital, especially the Nevsky Prospekt, the main thoroughfare, along which there has been sharp battling.

The Bolshevik leaders have taken refuge in the Smolny institute.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Nov. 13.—General Korniloff, the deposed commander of the Russian armies, has again entered Petrograd.

The entire garrison, except the sailors, are joining his forces, says a despatch to the Social Demokraten, under a Monday date line.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Nov. 13.—The Finland papers announce that Kerensky is now in Petrograd with the troops loyal to him and declare unreservedly that the Bolsheviks have been overthrown. Messages from Moscow say that southern Russia, controlled by the Cossacks, acknowledges the leadership of Kerensky.

Kerensky has announced that Moscow will be the seat of his government.

WASHINGTON HEARS OF BLOODY FIGHTING BY FACTIONS IN RUSSIA

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 13.—Petrograd despatches last night told of the sending of a sub-committee from the committee of public safety from the capital to Gatchina to seek to arrange a compromise between the Bolsheviks, Maximalists and Kerensky and his forces. No report of their arrival or the conference having been held was received last night but the action was indicative of the measures which are being taken to insure internal peace and of the fact that Kerensky is a force to be recognized and that the radicals are fully cognizant of it and recognize their own weakness without him.

Information reached Minister Morris at Stockholm that there had been a bloody battle fought near Gatchina. The advancing Kerensky forces, led by the Iron Man himself, met a force of the ultra-radical government had sent from Petrograd and the engagement followed. He was not advised of the result but notified the state department here of the advices which had reached him.

Anxiety continues to prevail in official and diplomatic circles here. The hope that Kerensky will put down the Bolshevik-Maximalist uprising and form a more conservative cabinet than anything which can be expected from those elements, and that he may keep his country in place among the Allies persists but it is admitted that in any event the morale of the army has been further and most dangerously shattered.
